

CASTING

D2A provides a totally free casting alternative?

Access reliable, professional, talent across a multitude of agencies.

Find undiscovered talent - without the fear of being inundated with unsuitable applications.

D2A offers a totally free talent screening service to all content producers, for professional paid work opportunities for our talent. We are not a talent agency, although we do provide many services for actors. We are not a casting agency, although we do assist you with casting. D2A is a totally unique site and service.

D2A bridges the gap between talent and producers and is willing to assist you in any way possible to cast your upcoming production.

Please submit your casting requirements via the “Post Free Casting Call” button on the home page. A forum is provided for you to add your talent requirements, character breakdowns and synopsis. Attach scripts, audition scenes, talent release forms, videos or images. You can elect to receive talent submission via email, a website link or contact via phone. Your phone details are requested but not openly posted on the site, so privacy is retained.

We then post your talent requirements to our casting board. The actors apply to us to be submitted, if matched to your casting brief, we submit their low resolution headshot and CV profile to you for consideration. Select the link on the top of the talent profiles to view further photos or videos.

Once selected you can contact the talent directly via their contacts listed on their application or via their agents contacts. If you prefer you can us via actors@dare2audition.com.au and we will ensure they contact you to book an audition time.

Prefer to search our Talent Database

If you prefer to search our advanced featured talent database, contacting performers directly at the site simply register an account to access our talent search feature. Suitable talent can be contacted initially via “send message” directly from their CV/Profile.

Actors who are not represented will have an ABN or we will invoice you on their behalf. No commission or fees are charge by D2A for this service.

Are you a student or short film maker?

CASTING

You can add your casting requirements directly to a special “Auditions” forum so that our members can contact you directly. There is no charge to register an account and access our forum or you may access our advanced featured talent search and contact the talent directly via our internal message system.

If you have any questions regarding talent, please contact us or phone 02 80062157

Thanking you,

Acting, Audition & Casting

Please Note: A new casting and notification system is currently in development, taking D2A to the next level in the online casting process. Once completed our video auditions feature, will allow you to further shortlist before auditions. A single email will be sent to you daily, with a thumbnail of all suitable talent. This will include only basic talent details, with a link to view their full site profile with audio, video, photos and full CV. This will ensure your email box is not overloaded with applications when you have a large number of roles are casting.
